

Working together to improve the lives of people in debt

Affiliate Membership

MALG is where creditors and advisers communicate openly, share views and best practice, increase understanding and professionalism, and engage effectively and constructively. MALG operates in a safe environment to come up with better ways to help people deal with their debt problems.

MALG provides Affiliate Membership to independent charities, individuals and sole traders who are committed to supporting its purposes and are interested in networking, information sharing and wider engagement with like-minded individuals and representatives from member organisations.

- latest debt advice information via MALG's communication channels including e-newsletters, forums, seminars, website, case studies and white papers
- authorised use of the endorsed MALG logo
- access to the latest industry papers and insight
- access to the MALG website including industry knowledge, discussion forums, podcasts and latest news
- access to MALG's Annual Conference
- access to National MALG Member Meetings

Your benefits:

- opportunity to keep up to date with industry research findings and gain insight into the latest consumer debt issues to enhance and improve your organisational strategies
- opportunities for you to network and share best practice, establish and discuss common business obstacles and, use the experiences of others to overcome challenges
- opportunities to join Discussion Groups and Working Parties on a range of issues and topics and to influence policies where appropriate
- free attendance at National MALG Member Meetings

Annual membership fee

- £125 + VAT

What to do next:

Visit the MALG website, www.malg.org.uk, or contact Bob Winnington, bob.winnington@malg.org.uk, to find out more about becoming an organisational member of MALG.